ALTERNATIVE ENERGY RESOURCES – THE BRIDGE TO THE FUTURE: Environmental Science and Equitable, Sustainable Development for the New Millennium

Student Writing Award for best original essay (approximately 1,500 words)

Closing Date: July 1, 2010

Prizes: Undergraduate - $300, Grades 9 to 12 - $200

Realizing the imaginative and creative role of science and engineering is vital in advancing our ways of thinking in the transformation from the production-consumption model of our industrial age to the new industrial age of sustainability. The essay should raise awareness of the important role of linking science, engineering innovation and technology for new skills and careers toward sustainable development and its global benefits for society.

CONSERVATION, PRESERVATION AND RESTORATION Earth Sciences Youth Story/Book Award
